Edinburgh, Monday, July 4, 1726.

From Miss's Weekly Journal, June 25.

THEY write from Paris, that the People in general seem well pleased with the late Changes in the Administration; among others, the Duke de Maine is now at Court, and in the Council, who has not meddled with publick Affairs since the Time of the late Regent, by whom he was confined, upon Suspicion of being in the Design which was laid for seizing and carrying the said Regent into Spain. The Duke of Bourbon continues at Chantilly, but is not visited by any Persons of the Court. Monsieur Paris, late of the Treasury, and his 3 Brothers, are banished.

From Petersburg, That the Czarina, notwithstanding the News she received of the English Fleet being in the Baltick, still insists, that the King of Denmark should do Justice to the Duke of Holstein with respect to the Dutchy of Sleswick. A great Part of her Attendants and Equipage are already set out for Riga; so that 'tis pretty certain she has hot altered her Resolution of taking that Journey.

We hear from Antwerp, That the Stock of the Netherland Company immediately rose from 12 to 25, upon Arrivsl of their Ships at Ostend, which we took notice of in our last. 'Tis supposed, before long there will be a Sale of their Cargoes; when they expect the City of Antwerp will be very much crowded with Strangers.

Dublin, June 18. The Persons mentioned in my last, who were taken up for the Riot on St. Stephen's Green, are admitted to Bail. Last Sunday two young Men going to wash themselves in the Liffy, near Island-bridge, one of them went out of his Depth, and the other going to his Assistance, they were both unfortunately drowned.

From the Whitehall Evening-Post, June 25.

Barcelona, June 10. The Disgrace of the Duke de Riperda has occasioned universal Joy here, because by his Management, he has reduc'd a vast Number of Families to Beggary; besides, his gross Neglect of the Interests of our Principality (in the Treaty with the Emperor) which in stead of being the better for the said Treaty, has been forced to restore some Dignities to 3 or 4 Clergymen who were nominated to them by the Emperor while he was in this Country, but were never yet owned by his Catholick Majesty. On the other hand, the Catalans flattered themselves the Imperial Court would have stipulated the Restoration of their ancient Privileges, of which they were deprived for no other Reason but their too great Devotion to the Emperor's Interest.

Upon the Signal of the Fire-works, the Dutch Squadron gave a Salute with their Cannon. This Entertainment was deferred till the 11th. the Anniversary of his Majest.

By a Ship lately arrived here from Brazil, our Court has received Advice of the Discovery of some new Gold Mines a great way up the Country; 'tis said they are very rich, and that large Pieces of Ore have been found almost upon the Surface of the Earth, from one to 200 Octava's Weight.

From the Flying Post, June 25.

Warsaw, June 15. They write from Courtland, That some Persons are arrived there who speak a Language quite unknown: They came altogether naked, each with a Crown and a Stick in his Hand; they sleep very little, and feed only upon Bread and Milk. Eight Hundred Seamen being arrived from Norway on board one of his Majesty's Ships, they were immediately distributed among the Men of War in our Road, without giving them leave to come a-shore. We shorly expect here from Berlin, Baron de Kniphausen, whom his Prussian Majesty sends hither with an important Commission.

Florence, June 8. Yesterday Morning our Grand Duke having given Audience to some Ministers, assisted at the Criminal Court of Judicature. In the Evening his Royal Highness went to visit the Church of Annosciada, and from thence to the Play, where they had prepared the Tragedy of Nero; but the Grand Duke ordered them to play a Comedy in its Room with an Interlude, during which he permitted the Ladies to Dance; and this was the first Time his Royal Highness went abroad since Palm-Sunday, being now pretty well recovered of his Sciatica.

Leghorn, June 8. The two Gallies of Genoa which carry the Gouvernour with some Soldier's to Corsica to strengthen the Garrison there, have passed by this Place. They write from that Island, that 400 Boors, under pretence of defending themselves against the Corsairs of Barbary went in a Body to the Arsenal, where the Arms taken two Years ago from the Inhabitants were kept, and having broken in carried them off: Whereupon the Gouvernour has sent several Detachments after those Mutineers to quell them.

Britain to the Empress, the Contents whereof are kept secret. But a Compliance thereto can not well be doubted, considering such a Force is ready at Hand to back it, and which probably will not suffer it to be delayed beyond the reasonable Time allowed.

'Tis reported that six Men of War more will be put into Commission.

The good Advantages that will accrue to the Nation from the respective Expeditions that our Men

Men of War are ordered far, will no Doubt abundantly compensate the Charges, however great they may be thought to amount to; tho' some take a great Liberty of speaking thereof, as also of other Methods which are not of their Sphere.

The Advices by the Holland Mail just arrived, are, From Stockholm of the 19th Inst. That the Ministers of Great Britain and Prussia, have each of them presented a Memorial, to engage him to accede forthwith to the Treaty of Hanover. Seven of the most considerable Rivers of Catalonia have also overflowed all the Lands thereabouts, carried away all the Fruits of the Field by the Rapidity of the Stream, so that from an Age past, there have not been such terrible Effects of that Element.

Hague, July 2. Letters from Vienna will have it, that the Baron de Riperda is accused by the Duke his Father; That he is demanded by the King of Spain, and that he is to be carried to Madrid under a strong Guard. As to his being too far concern'd with his Father, as being privy to his Secrets, is not in the least to be doubted of: But that he should be charged by him as guilty, does not seem in the least probable. The Imperial Court seems uneasy at this Incident; they pity the Son, and would fain employ him, as having Talents above one of his Age.
